- Solid preparation for high-level private, academic or public sector employment
- Autonomous, critical legal reasoning skills to analyse complex EU/international legal issues and develop pertinent solutions
- Communicate and negotiate with a wide range of stakeholders in an international environment
- A diverse and multicultural group of friends

* 95% of our alumni found a job within 6 months after graduation, 50% within 1 month (recent survey)

'The enriching academic year I spent attending the LLM in International and European Law programme at the IES in Brussels really surpassed my expectations, revealing itself as of unparalleled quality and interest. After my legal studies in Rome, this Master has given a completely different, multifaceted and tailored dimension to my career perspectives in European and International affairs. It constitutes a strong and valuable basis for my professional future. Thanks to this LLM I look forward to the next challenges with absolute confidence!'

- Eleonora Camela, 2018-19 student

'A BEST PRACTICE IN INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVE'*

Who can apply?

To qualify for admission you need to have:

- a law degree (J.D., LL.M. or equivalent) that entitles you to practise law in your country of origin
- excellent academic results and references
- proven proficiency in English (see programme website for details).

Students are selected on the basis of their academic qualifications as well as work and other related experience.

What does it cost?

For updated tuition fees and study costs please check our website www.llminbrussels.eu.

The Programme offers a limited number of scholarships, that take the form of partial tuition waivers. These waivers are awarded on the basis of a separate request, submitted as a part of your application. They are awarded upon an assessment of merit and demonstrable need.

What can you study?

After a solid set of 8 core courses (30 credits) on EU institutional law and judicial protection, EU external relations law, EU economic law, public international and comparative law, human rights and competition law, students can choose to focus on one of 3 specialisation options (12 credits). You close off the programme with a Master's thesis (18 credits). Full details on all courses are available on the programme's website.
